

COMMUNITY CONSERVATION

A DOCUMENTARY

Finding the Balance Between Nature and Culture

Thursday,
January 11
7-9 pm

Saint Mary's
43 Foreside Rd
Falmouth

Admission is Free

Mark Ireland filming the fog lifting over Rangeley Lake at sunrise. His documentary, filmed over four seasons, profiles four land trusts in different regions of Maine, demonstrating the variety of efforts to make conserved lands available to all community members.

Please join award-winning Maine filmmaker Mark Ireland, and the directors of sponsoring land trusts, for a free film screening and open conversation about strengthening the community conservation movement in Southern Maine. Social hour to follow.

PRESENTED BY:

